

Raising the bar

A dynamic law firm begins with people from all backgrounds. At Eversheds Sutherland, our success is directly related to our long-standing commitment to recruiting and retaining a rich array of talent and experience. We believe that diverse skills, knowledge and viewpoints make us a stronger, more productive law firm.

100%

For the ninth consecutive year, Eversheds Sutherland was named a “Best Place to Work for LGBTQ+ Equality,” by the Human Rights Campaign, America’s largest civil rights organization working to achieve lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender+ (LGBTQ+) equality. Eversheds Sutherland once again earned a perfect 100% score on the Human Rights Campaign Foundation’s Corporate Equality Index. The survey rates businesses on a scale from zero to 100% on their treatment of LGBTQ+ employees, consumers and investors.

Eversheds Sutherland was given 2018 Gold Standard Certification by the Women in Law Empowerment Forum (WILEF). We were one of only 42 law firms to receive the Gold Standard Certification in 2018. The WILEF recognition comes just one month after Eversheds Sutherland announced the expansion of its women’s initiative, which is intended to speed the evolution of existing successful programs and establish new ones to meet its goal of women accounting for 30% of all partners and 30% of all equity partners by 2021.

Eversheds Sutherland was selected as a finalist for the Minority Corporate Counsel Association’s (MCCA) 2017 George B. Vashon Innovator Award. Named after the first African American attorney in New York State and one of the first admitted to practice before the Supreme Court of the United States, the George B. Vashon Innovator Award recognizes law firms for their commitment and excellence in leading the way with innovative best practices to assist diverse attorneys.

We are proud of our history and ongoing accomplishments in promoting diversity within Eversheds Sutherland and the legal community. For more information about our programs to enhance diversity and inclusion across the legal profession, please contact:
