WORKING AT WEIL, GOTSHAL & MANGES IS NOT FOR EVERYONE.

How do you cope when asked to face your fears? In our experience, it's often a good way to get the best out of people. We encourage our employees to leave their comfort zones and experience the thrill of those butterflies and heart-stopping moments.

Living six thousand miles from home, studying a technical area of law, in a different legal system, presented a very steep learning curve for new trainee Julia. But the experience of working alongside highly regarded patent attorneys proved an exhilarating one. As did life in the Californian sunshine.

We're looking for people like Julia to join our September 2011 intake of trainee lawyers. If you want to learn at the sharp end and are ready for a challenge, come and talk to us...
