Strategic Plan and Diversity Leadership

How does the firm's leadership communicate the importance of diversity to everyone at the firm?

Diversity is a regular discussion topic verbally and via e-mail, particularly when recruiting/hiring new lawyers. Three of our last four hires were women. Of our eighteen (18) lawyers, nine (9) are women.

Who has primary responsibility for leading diversity initiatives at your firm?

Karen Ibach Bowden and Bradley R. Johnson

Does your law firm currently have a diversity committee?

No

If yes, does the committee's representation include one or more members of the firm's management/executive committee (or equivalent)?

N/A

If yes, how many attorneys are on the committee, and in 2012, what was the total number of hours collectively spent by the committee in the furtherance of the firm's diversity initiatives?

Total attorneys on committee: [No response]

Total hours spent on diversity: [No response]

Does the committee and/or diversity leader establish and set goals or objectives consistent with management's priorities?

No

If partially, please explain.

Our firm does not set goals, but numbers above show commitment and action consistent with management's priorities.

Has the firm undertaken a formal or informal diversity program or set of initiatives aimed at increasing the diversity of the firm?

Yes

If yes, is it formal or informal?

We have undertaken no formal action; we have made real hires.

How often does the firm's management review the firm's diversity progress/results?

Ongoing

How is the firm's diversity committee and/or firm management held accountable for achieving results?

There are no numeric goals, just real hires. Many firms talk about diversity, we live it daily.

Is your firm minority-owned or women-owned?

No

Retention and Professional Development

Please identify the specific steps you are taking to reduce the attrition rate of diverse attorneys.

- Develop and/or support internal employee affinity groups (e.g., networks within the firm for minorities, women, gay/lesbian attorneys, or individuals with disabilities)
- Increase/review compensation relative to competition
- Increase/improve current work/life programs
- Adopt dispute resolution process
- Succession plan includes emphasis on diversity and greater inclusion of non-white men and women in firm leadership
- Work with diverse attorneys to develop career advancement plans
- Introduce diverse attorneys to key clients, including to lead engagements
- Review work assignments and hours billed to key client matters to make sure diverse attorneys, particularly non-white attorneys (i.e., minority attorneys, for whom research indicates a greater inclusion problem), are not being excluded:
- Strengthen mentoring program for all attorneys
- Professional skills development program for all attorneys
- Provide a gender-neutral parental leave policy that covers adoptions
- Other (please specify)

Adopt dispute resolution process Work with diverse attorneys to develop career advancement plans Introduce diverse attorneys to key clients, including lead engagements Strengthen mentoring program for all attorneys

Does your firm have part-time/flex-time policies that permit attorneys (male or female) to work alternative schedules?

Yes

Comments:

The firm has one shareholder and two associates that work part-time.

What impact, if any, will the decision to work part time have on an attorney's ability to make a partner, or if already a partner, to remain a partner at your firm?

Our part-time shareholder has remained a shareholder.

How many current equity partners have worked part time, exclusive of maternity/paternity leave or short-term disability?

One

The Firm Says

In 2012, we had a shareholder and an associate that were members of the D.W. Perkins Bar Association. Both have served on various committees throughout their years of membership.

The shareholder previously served as the Banquet Chair for the D.W. Perkins Bar Association in 2010 and became Chair in November 2010. She served on the Jacksonville Area Legal Aid and served as Chair to KIPP Jacksonville Schools Governance Committee.

The associate previously served on the Board as the Secretary and is currently their Assistant Treasurer. She has served on the Annual Scholarship, Judicial Reception and Mentorship Committees. In 2009, she co-founded the Social Sidebar, a monthly networking group of young professionals in the Jacksonville area.
