Strategic Plan and Diversity Leadership

How does the firm's leadership communicate the importance of diversity to everyone at the firm?

The Firm communicates the importance of Diversity and Inclusion through active participation in numerous internal and external efforts, including the Mansfield 2.0 Initiative. Inside the firm, these communication efforts include diversity and inclusion components of management committee and principal meetings, working with consultants on research projects and to bolster our D&I efforts, inclusiveness and implicit bias training, a monthly newsletter, a diversity event calendar, and emails that announce informal lunch discussions, speakers and other events. Our intranet has a "Diversity & Inclusion Corner" that features news of events and Book Club information and posts interviews with firm staff and attorneys from various offices.

In 2018, all Management Committee and Diversity & Inclusion Committee members were required to read "That's What She Said: What Men Need to Know (And Women Need to Tell Them) About Working Together," by Joanne Lipman. This was followed by a series of group discussions across the firm.

Past efforts (before 2018) included a firm collaboration with Kathleen Nalty on a diversity assessment case for her book "Going All-In on Diversity & Inclusion: The Law Firm Leader's Playbook." All firm employees took an assessment that formed the basis for Ms. Nalty to follow up with training and conversations in every firm office to study the firm's progress and plot next steps. We have also worked with Dr. Arin Reeves and Ellen Ostrow, and mentoring expert Ritu Bhasin.

Who has primary responsibility for leading diversity initiatives at your firm?

Nessa Coppinger, Principal, Diversity & Inclusion Chair

Does your law firm currently have a diversity committee?

Yes

If yes, do one or more members of the firm's management/executive committee (or the equivalent) serve on the diversity committee?

No

If yes, how many attorneys are on the committee, and in 2018, what was the total number of hours collectively spent by the committee in the furtherance of the firm's diversity initiatives?

Total attorneys on committee: 5

Total hours spent on diversity: 436

Does the committee and/or diversity leader establish and set goals or objectives consistent with management's priorities?

Yes

Has the firm undertaken a formal or informal diversity program or set of initiatives aimed at increasing the diversity of the firm?

Yes

If yes, is it formal or informal?

Formal — participating in the Mansfield Rule. See also our response to question 8.1/Firm Narrative where we describe more fully the many formal efforts and initiatives we have undertaken to increase our diversity.

How often does the firm's management review the firm's diversity progress/results?

Formal annual review and as needed/regularly throughout the year.

How is the firm's diversity committee and/or firm management held accountable for achieving results?

The Diversity team formally reports on its efforts and accomplishments to management and firm principals annually. We conduct an all-employee diversity survey every other year, sharing the results firmwide. The Diversity and Inclusion Principal and other members of the diversity committee make other presentations and status reports as warranted.

Is your firm minority-owned or women-owned?

No

Pipeline Initiatives

Does your firm actively engage in initiatives to feed the diversity pipeline by encouraging minority students to consider law as a career and/or assisting them in pursuing such opportunities?

- Participate in established pipeline programs, such as SEO, Legal Outreach, Prep for Prep or Street Law*
- Fund scholarships for minority high school or college students*
- Mentor minority high school or college students*
- Participate in or host mock trial programs or career events*
- Provide internships or employment to minority high school or college students*
- Outreach to middle school students*

Please discuss any additional efforts to reach out to diverse undergraduates, high school, middle school or grade school students.

We sponsor the Just the Beginning Foundation's Summer Legal Institute in Washington and Baltimore, during which Firm lawyers, help diverse high school students on a legal problem. The Institute is designed to insure young, diverse students to succeed, not only in law (should they chose it as a career path) but in life.

We also participate in (and host) Urban Debate League programs in our San Francisco and New York offices. Urban Debate League helps urban youth graduate from high school prepared to succeed in college and their careers and to contribute to their communities by providing debate programming to urban middle and high school students. We host the debates and Firm lawyers and staff serve as judges.

B&D also has a longstanding partnership with the Washington Lawyers Committee for Civil Rights and Urban Affairs through which we provide a range of mentoring and support activities to the Savoy Elemental School, a Washington DC public school in an underprivileged neighborhood. For example, we teach a six-week environmental science program to fourth or fifth graders each year, culminating with a field trip on the Anacostia River. For many Savoy Elementary students, this program is their first exposure to environmental science. We also coach the school's GeoPlunge geography team and engage in other outreach efforts. For many of our lawyers, this program becomes one of their most meaningful ways of engaging with the future.

Recruitment - New Associates

Does your firm annually recruit at any of the following types of institutions?

Ivy League law schools: Harvard Law School; Columbia Law School; Yale Law School

Other private law schools: Duke University School of Law; Georgetown Law Center; William & Mary Law School; Stanford Law School; New York University School of Law; George Washington University School of Law; Pace University School of Law; American University of Washington College of Law; Lewis & Clark Law School; School of Law at Wake Forest University.

Public state law schools: UC Berkeley School of Law; University of Maryland School of Law; University of Michigan Law School; University of Texas @ Austin School of Law; Vermont Law School; University of Oregon School of Law; UCLA School of Law; Tulane University of Law; University of Chicago Law School; University of Colorado Boulder Law School; University of Virginia Law School; UNC School of Law.

Law schools of Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs): Howard University School of Law; North Carolina Central University Law School.

Diversity job fairs: Northwest Minority Job Fair.

Do you have any special outreach efforts directed to encourage minority law students to consider your firm?

- Hold a reception for minority students
- Advertise in minority law student association publications
- Participate in or host minority law student job fairs
- Sponsor minority law student association events
- Firm lawyers participate on career panels at schools
- Outreach to leadership of minority student organizations
- Scholarships or intern/fellowships for minority students
- Other (please specify)

Please see our response to Question 8.1/Firm Narrative for more details on these efforts.

Do you have any programs specifically targeted at first-year students?

Yes, we participate in the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity (LCLD) 1L summer scholars program and host a minority 1L student as a summer associate every year. We have been participating in this program since 2012.

In 2013, Beveridge & Diamond created the Thurgood Marshall Opportunity Program to provide opportunities for diverse first-year law students to have internships at the Maryland Attorney General's Office. Working with the Attorney General, we secured the participation of three other law firms in funding a paid internship program. This program evolved from an invitation that the Attorney General and his advisors extend to B&D to discuss how to improve diversity in the public sector legal community, and the broader Maryland legal community. Since its initial class in 2013, approximately 42 students have benefitted from the program.

Retention and Professional Development

Please identify the specific steps you are taking to reduce the attrition rate of diverse attorneys.

- Develop and/or support internal employee affinity groups (e.g., networks within the firm for minorities, women, LGBTQ attorneys, or individuals with disabilities)
- Increase/review compensation relative to competition
- Implement procedures to ensure gender pay equity
- Increase/improve current work/life programs
- Adopt dispute resolution process
- Succession plan includes emphasis on diversity and greater inclusion of minority men and women in firm leadership
- Work with diverse attorneys to develop career advancement plans
- Introduce diverse attorneys to key clients, including to lead engagements
- Review work assignments and hours billed to key client matters to make sure diverse attorneys, particularly minority attorneys (for whom research indicates a greater inclusion problem), are not being excluded
- Strengthen mentoring program for all attorneys
- Professional skills development program for all attorneys
- Provide a gender-neutral parental leave policy that covers adoptions
- Other (please specify)

Regarding adopting a dispute resolution process, although we have no formal process, we assign shareholder and associate mentors, provide access to the associate committee chairs who report to the management committee and if there is a departure, we provide an exit interview that is shared with management. In 2018, the Firm established a Talent Retention Task Force to focus on identifying and implementing additional steps the Firm can take to reduce attorney attrition, and specifically the attrition of diverse attorneys. Please see our response to Question 8.1/Firm Narrative for more on these efforts.

Does your firm have part-time/flex-time policies that permit attorneys (male or female) to work alternative schedules?

Yes

What impact, if any, will the decision to work part time have on an attorney's ability to make a partner, or if already a partner, to remain a partner at your firm?

None

How many current equity partners have worked part time, exclusive of maternity/paternity leave or short-term disability?

23

The Firm Says

Our firm's founders envisioned a law practice that not only accommodates but also values and celebrates differences of personal background, intellectual perspective, and opinion. In the 45 years since our founding, we have attracted and retained a diverse group of talented lawyers and staff who affirm these values on a daily basis. These differences make us a stronger group and provide better results for our clients.

Today, nearly half (54%) of our lawyers are women or minorities. 39% of our principals are women. From 2008 until 2018, at least half of our Associates and Of Counsel promoted to Principal have been women or minority attorneys. In 2019, 40% of our Associates and Of Counsel promoted to Principal have been women or minority attorneys. 80% of the lawyers who joined the firm in 2018 were women or minorities, and 66% of our entry-level fall Associate class in 2018 were women or minorities. Additionally, Four of the six lawyers on the Firm's management committee (the Firm's highest governing body that also determines compensation) are women, minorities, or LGBTQ+. Overall, six of the eight members of the management committee are women, minorities, or LGBTQ+.

Our diversity and inclusion (D&I) mission statement reads:

"Beveridge & Diamond supports the success and professional advancement of all people in the Firm. We focus on attracting, developing and retaining diverse talent, and we strive to create equal opportunities for individuals to live up to their potential and feel included as valued members of the Firm. We are committed to our continued leadership in promoting diversity and inclusion in the legal profession, and are dedicated to working with our clients and communities to do so."

Highlights of our 2017-19 efforts to recruit, retain, and advance diverse attorneys include:

- Seeking Mansfield certification in the Mansfield 2.0 initiative
- Participating in the Leadership Council for Legal Diversity's (LCLD) 1L scholar program, "Pathfinder" program, Fellows program, and law school mentoring program. Every year since 2012, a student from the 1L scholar program has spent their summer with us.

- Hosting a Howard University Environmental & Energy Law career forum targeting diverse students in the Washington, DC area.

- Participating as sponsors, speakers, or attendees at programs organized by the following groups:

Minority Corporate Counsel Association (Firm Affiliate Network)

Diversity & Flexibility Alliance

LCLD (the firm has had four LCLD fellows in addition to participating in the LCLD law student summer scholar program)

Defense Research Institute Diversity for Success Conference

Diversity in Environmental Law Series at the Environmental Law Institute

National Association of Women Judges

NAWL (leading environmental/energy and litigation affinity groups)

Corporate Counsel Women of Color

Charting Your Own Course

Council on Legal Education Opportunity

The National Bar Association (organizing the NBA Energy Forums)

The Center for Legal Inclusiveness

Hispanic National Bar Association

- Ben Wilson, Beveridge & Diamond's Chair who is African American, leads the African American Managing Partners Network, a group of over 25 African American attorneys in the U.S. who either currently manage or have managed an Am Law 200 law firm or one of its offices. The network members aim to increase opportunities for African-American lawyers, and to assist corporations and other businesses in their efforts to increase diversity and inclusion within their staffs and the outside counsel they retain. Mr. Wilson also founded and continues to lead the Diverse Partners Network and the Diverse Corporate Counsel Network.

- Participating in recruiting programs arranged by the National Black Law Students Association, The National Bar Association, the National LGBT Bar Association, and the Minority Corporate Counsel Association.

- Sponsoring the Just the Beginning Foundation's Summer Legal Institute in Washington and Baltimore, during which Firm lawyers, help diverse high school students on a legal problem.

- Participating in the Urban Debate League programs in our San Francisco and New York offices. Urban Debate League helps urban youth graduate from high school prepared to succeed in college and their careers, and to contribute to their communities by providing debate programming to urban middle and high school students.

- We are honored to have received recognition of our D&I efforts and results, including: MCCA Thomas L. Sager Award (2013); DRI's Law Firm Diversity Award (2015); Outstanding Achievement Award from the Washington Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights and Urban Affairs (2015); MCCA's George B. Vashon Innovator Award (2018); Vault (4th of 30 midsize firms for diversity, (2019); Law360 Top Law Firm for Female Attorneys (2015, 2016, 2019)

The firm's internal efforts to advance D&I awareness include:

- Launching a Women's Initiative within the firm to help retain and support the careers of women lawyers, and similar affinity groups for LGBTQ++ lawyers and lawyers of color.

- Hosting inclusion events to promote connectedness and inclusiveness.

- Educating employees about D&I through our ongoing Connections internal newsletter and internal presentations on implicit bias and diversity and inclusion.
- Serving as a pilot case for D&I expert Kathleen Nalty's research for her book Going All-In on Diversity & Inclusion: The Law Firm Leader's Playbook.
- Developing a new mentoring program with the assistance of D&I and law firm leadership and culture expert Ritu Bhasin.
- Celebrating multicultural holiday and culinary traditions.
- Our ongoing priorities include recruiting and retaining diverse attorneys; enhancing our attorney mentoring program; providing tools to our attorneys and staff to identify and interrupt bias; understanding and improving generational diversity; improving diversity of work teams; and measuring our progress in achieving the Firm's D&I goals. We continue to seek feedback from all employees via anonymous surveys and individual and group meetings and conversations.
- In 2018, the Firm formed a Talent Retention Task Force ("TRTF") to evaluate the Firm's practices and policies relating broadly to the topic of talent retention, with a specific focus on associates. The TRTF conducted fact gathering, including interviews and town hall meetings, and issued a report with recommendations to the Management Committee. In response the Management Committee established a permanent TRTF to implement the recommendations in the report. Key issues the TRTF focuses on including parental support, flexible work arrangements, improved transparency, improved talent development programs (training and work assignments), and associate compensation. The Firm has already implemented the TRTF's recommendations in most of these areas.
